ZILDJIAN FAMILY OPPORTUNITY FUND
GRANT APPLICATION 2012–2013

The Zildjian Family Opportunity Fund is a permanently endowed trust managed and administered through the Percussive Arts Society. The purpose of the Zildjian Family Opportunity Fund is to provide funding for percussion-based presentations directed to underserved youth, ages pre-school through high school. Utilizing outstanding percussion presenters, programs are to be presented at schools, community centers, or other publicly accessible facilities at no charge to participants. Applications will be accepted from individual artists and/or organizations. Awards will be granted based on artistic quality, content of presentation and demonstrated ability to carry out the proposal as submitted. Applicant/Artist must be a current member of the Percussive Arts Society.

Proposals will be accepted for awards ranging from $500–$3,000.

All application materials must be received by July 01, 2012.

Awards will be announced no later than September 15, 2012. All funded activities must be complete by September 15, 2013.
