IN MEMORIAM

Jack Rumbley

Percussionist Jack Rumbley died Wednesday, Dec. 30, 2009, at the age of 79 after a struggle against cancer. He held BA and MA degrees from the University of North Texas Music School and served in the 4th Army Band, San Antonio. After service in the Army, Jack played timpani in the Corpus Christi Symphony. Returning to Dallas, Jack taught in the Dallas ISD, spent 40 summers in the pit orchestra at Casa Manana, Fort Worth, and played timpani with the Fort Worth Symphony for 40 seasons. When he retired from the Fort Worth Symphony, he joined the East Texas Symphony in Tyler as timpanist.

Memorial gifts can be made to the Jack Rumbley Percussion Scholarship at UNT College of Music, 1155 Union Circle #311367, Denton, Texas 76203-5017, attention Elida Tamez.
