Works Cited by:
T. Adam Blackstock, Associate Professor of Percussion at Troy University

Carbon Paper and Nitrogen Ink (2014) – Adam Silverman

- 3 movements (approximately 21 minutes)
- Self-published by the composer
- Percussion ensemble, wind ensemble and piano reduction versions
- Noted Recording – Scott Herring, Carbon Paper and Nitrogen Ink: this disc is available through Resonator Records (Malletech)

Concerto for Marimba (1999) – Eric Ewazen

- 3 movements (approximately 29 minutes)
- Published through Keyboard Percussion Publications
- Percussion ensemble, string orchestra, wind ensemble and piano reduction versions
- Noted Recording – She-e Wu, The Music of Eric Ewazen: this disc is available through Resonator Records (Malletech)

- 3 movements (approximately 24 minutes)
- Published through Keyboard Percussion Publications
- Percussion ensemble, full orchestra and wind ensemble versions
- Noted Recording – Leigh Howard Stevens with Nexus, Lullaby: this disc is available through Resonator Records (Malletech)

Other Notable Works:

- Concerto No. 2 by Marcin Blazewicz (piano and full orchestra)
- Concerto No. 1 by Nebojsa Jovan Zivkovic (piano and full orchestra)
- Concerto No. 2 by Nebojsa Jovan Zivkovic (piano and full orchestra)
- Concerto for Marimba by Michael Burritt (piano and string orchestra)

---There are countless works within the concerto category. Explore the options, identify adaptability and find what fits into your repertoire.